No. 143. Whereas, the murderous lynchings of thousands of African Americans, by the Ku Klux Klan, represent the most ugly, bane feature of American history, and

Whereas, after fighting to save the Union, millions of African Americans were run off their land, disenfranchised of the right to vote and hold office, their business were stolen, and legal segregation became United States law, violently enforced by the Ku Klux Klan, and

Whereas, these inhuman conditions resulted in the largest migration of human beings in the history of the world, causing millions of African Americans to flee their families, leave behind their property, abandon their newly developed culture, to seek the relative safety of "Up North," and

Whereas, the legally codified laws of Jim Crow and the Ku Klux Klan, which continued to crush African Americans under a new kind of Slavery, existed up until our lifetimes, with despicable signs that read, "White Only," "Colored Only," were only recently removed thirty some years ago, yet the effects and the racist ideology of White Supremacy lingers to this day, and

Whereas, the venom of the Ku Klux Klan has been extended to include Jews, Catholics, Gays and Lesbians, and all people of color, and

Whereas, the legacy of the Ku Klux Klan has spawned thousands of Klan-oid organizations, like the Nazis, the Aryan Nation, the militia groups and according to FBI reports, more of these hate mongers make their homes in Penns Woods, than in any other state in the nation, and are now abandoning their lairs in the woods and are approaching the cities, like Pittsburgh, with renewed boldness,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the City Council of Pittsburgh, hereby goes on record as being in unison with the current refrain, "Not In Our Town," and we congratulate the Coalition To Counter Hate Groups, that has scheduled an alternative anti-Klan, anti-hate rally, and urge all right minded Pittsburghers to avoid and ignore the Klan rally on the steps of this very building and instead, join us in Market Square, at noon, Saturday, April 5, 1997.

No. 430. WHEREAS, this year by request of the community Darryl Oaks coached the Leland Giants, a little league team in the Pleasant Valley Community. This area has not had a little league team in over ten years and Coach Oaks stuck out a rough year in order to ensure that this neighborhood would again have little league baseball; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Oaks coordinated his efforts in conjunction with the Greater Northside Athletic Association to bring a new opportunity to the youth of the neighborhood. This effort provided the youth with a means to learn sportsmanship and character. Coach Oaks gave the children of the neighborhood a different outlook on life. He gave an example of standing strong to the children and taught them to keep on swinging even when everyone else has given up; and

WHEREAS, when friends and colleagues suggested to Coach Oaks that he throw in the towel, he used it instead to clean off first base. Coach Oaks provided transportation to those children who could not get to a game. When more funds were needed Coach Oaks reached into his own pocket. Coach Oaks was always there to assist; and

WHEREAS, when other teams laughed at the thought of girls playing baseball Coach Oaks gave them an at bat and the opportunity to try. He taught their teammates to provide encouragement; and

WHEREAS, when others laughed at the Little Giants for sacrificing their time to play in the heat and rain, they played on. When they knew they would lose, they stayed in the game until the end. The children on the Leland Giants team learned to persevere; and

WHEREAS, together Coach Oaks and the Little Giants held on where many others would have given up. Thus together they helped bring Little League Baseball not only back to the Pleasant Valley neighborhood but to the Perry South Community as a whole. Due to Coach Oaks' efforts the community can look forward to building a positive relationship with the city and the Greater Northside Athletic Association.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh hereby congratulates Coach Darryl Oaks for teaching the youth of the North Side that success comes from striving to overcome whatever odds are set before us. Council commends Coach Darryl Oaks for helping children to understand that real success comes from hard work and refusing to give in to adversity.

432. WHEREAS, on May 10, 1910, four religious leaders in Pittsburgh approached Robert L. Vann to draw up papers of incorporation for a weekly newspaper for Pittsburgh's growing African-American community. The leaders wanted Vann to be involved because he was a prominent lawyer and had experience as a journalist on other African-American publications in Pittsburgh. Since they did not have enough money to pay Vann, they gave him ten shares of stock in the new venture. This was the beginning of Vann's relationship with the Pittsburgh Courier. Soon, in addition to serving as legal counsel and treasurer, Robert L. Vann became the editor, and eventually the owner of the Courier; and

WHEREAS, Robert L. Vann developed a strategy for launching the Courier that made it the most successful African-American newspaper in the country. He used the newspaper to crusade for social issues concerning the African-American community; and

WHEREAS, through the Courier, he campaigned against Jim Crow laws, and discrimination against African-Americans in major league baseball and the armed forces. Robert L Vann also made sure that the Courier was taken into the South, for in some localities Black citizens were prohibited from reading Black publications. The Courier had the largest circulation of any Black newspaper in the country. More than 300,000 copies of each edition were sold; and

WHEREAS, Robert L. Vann was also active in politics and in 1933 was appointed Special Assistant to the Attorney General of the United States, making him the first African-American to receive such a high level job; and

WHEREAS, in 1901 Robert L. Vann graduated valedictorian from Waters Training School in Winton, North Carolina. He was an eloquent speaker and delivered his valedictory address entitled "Launched but Not Anchored". When Robert L. Vann wrote this speech, he did not know that he would be a crusader for equal opportunity for African-Americans across the nation.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh declares Sunday, July 13, 1997 as Robert L. Vann day in the City of Pittsburgh.

WHEREAS, Congressman Coyne has consistently voted in the House of Representatives to protect the nation's civil rights laws from being eroded. He supported the reauthorization of the Voting Rights Act in 1982; he fought to enact legislation in 1988 that reversed a Supreme Court decision limiting the reach of federal anti-discrimination laws; and he supported the Civil Rights Restoration Act of 1991 which reversed several Supreme Court decisions restricting federal anti-discrimination policies; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Coyne has sought passage of legislation to reduce the burdens on low income working families. He supported legislation in 1993 that made receipt of the Earned Income Tax Credit more accessible to American workers. This law has benefited thousands of working families in Pittsburgh. He opposed recent welfare reform legislation that will adversely affect many poor families in Pittsburgh. He also recently opposed efforts to reduce the Low Income Housing Tax Credit upon which many Pennsylvania families rely; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Coyne has consistently supported efforts to combat violence in our country without sacrificing important constitutional protections. Congressman Coyne was instrumental in securing legislative language increasing Community Development Block Grant funding for Pittsburgh, which allowed Pittsburgh to hire additional police officers. Congressman Coyne also supported passage of the Brady Bill in the 104th Congress. This law has already prevented an estimated 250,000 convicted felons and other prohibited purchasers from obtaining firearms; and

WHEREAS, Congressman Coyne believes in the importance of health care for every resident of Pittsburgh. He has repeatedly supported legislation in the House of Representatives that would guarantee health care coverage to every American. Congressman Coyne continues to work to ensure that Pittsburgh's senior citizens are treated fairly by the Medicare program.
